

The Board of Directors of Visalia Country Club has developed and refined a Dress Code, which all Members and their guests are expected to adhere to when utilizing the facilities of the Club. The Board has directed that the Management team be empowered to enforce this code, and thereby deny privileges to Members, their children and their guest who are not in conformity with these standards. The Club Management shall have sole discretion and authority in matters of appropriateness of attire. The Club is steeped in tradition, and places a high value on the rules, traditional etiquette, and character inherent in the game of golf. Our Members and their guests are expected to conduct themselves accordingly

GOLF COURSE RULES

MEN'S GOLF COURSE DRESS CODE

Men must wear sport shirts, or golf shirts with sleeves and raised collars, turtleneck collars, or Mock turtlenecks (1" height collar). Shirts may be untucked in good taste. Men may wear Bermuda shorts, plus fours (knickers) or slacks. Shorts or slacks must be of traditional, conservative tailoring. Caps must be worn with the "bill" of the cap forward. Denim of any color, warm ups, or sweat outfits may not be worn on the course. Denim is allowed on the driving range, practice facilities, and can also be worn by spectators.

Visalia Country Club is a soft spike facility and does not allow metal or ceramic spikes.

WOMEN'S GOLF COURSE DRESS CODE

Skorts, shorts, skirts and tops are to be consistent with ladies' professional tournament attire as seen on the LPGA tour, this includes "Live in type Pants/Tights". Denim of any color, warm ups or sweat outfits may not be worn. On themed guest days, regular dress code may be waived.

The Pro Shop staff has the right to refuse use of the golf facilities to any Member or guest whose attire does not conform to the above requirements. Violations will be reported to the Board of Directors for disciplinary action in accordance with the club's enforcement policy.

CLUBHOUSE DRESS CODE

Tee shirts, tank tops, baggy or “low-riding” pants, track suit pants/shorts and bathing attire are NOT permitted in the Clubhouse or on the patios. Ladies shall wear golf shirts or blouses, and tailored slacks, skirts, or Bermuda shorts. Dresses, whether strapless, off the shoulder, halter, tank-type (sundresses) or spaghetti straps are allowed; shell tops are also permitted. Tops with exposed mid-drifts are not allowed. This also applies to children and young adults, with the exception of infants. Children under the age of 18 are NOT permitted in the Lounge/Patio or Dining Room unless accompanied by an adult.

Shirts may be untucked in the Lounge and Dining Room.

- Denim is allowed in the Lounge and Dining Room, permitting they have no holes and are not faded
- Hats are to be removed by men and boys in the Dining room, hats are allowed in the Members' Lounge, hats must be worn with the bill forward
- Shoes must be worn. Golf shoes and sandals are permitted in the Dining Room, Lounge and Patios
- Parents are responsible for the conduct and attire of their children
- Members are responsible to ensure that their guests adhere to the dress code
- Golf spectators may wear denim if not playing
- Mobile phone calls, other than texting, are not permitted in the Clubhouse, please use the common area to make cell phone calls
- Smoking is ONLY allowed on the lower patio

The Club reserves the right to relax the dress code or specify costume dress for special occasions with notice. The staff is empowered to monitor the dress code, inform Members of infractions, and report repeat infractions to the Board of Directors. We will be more flexible with children at the Club's discretion but please try to have them dress to the adult dress code standards.

Members should be aware that it is not possible to stipulate the exact types of appropriate clothing, but all Members are requested to abide by the intent of the code and to cooperate accordingly. Members are responsible for their guests' compliance to the Club dress code.

Thank you for dressing appropriately; it demonstrates your respect for the Club and your fellow Members
